“ I remember one of the first time meeting Wayne at our grandmother's house. He asked her if she had any air-conditioners. When grandmom look at him with a straight face and told him yes I do. Then pointed to the front door and the back door. The look in Wayne's face, I can still picture it. Lol

“ Since I was 8 years old Waynie has been with my sister. He was always taking life as it came, never getting upset about much. Always good for a 1 liner. I will miss my birthday buddy, but I will keep celebrating down here until we get to see each other again.

“ Loss always hurts, but the memories of Wayne - his kindness, his passion for the fire department, and tireless dedication to Anne Arundel county - remain as vivid sparks. Humor was his blessing to us all; it will light our way through sorrow and tears. Heaven surely shines brighter now with him there. Weep your grief out, for each tear acknowledges a life well-lived, deeply loved and profoundly missed. Love you forever Wayne.\r\nGale Watkins
