“ To my extremely talented Brother Charles, who could make any outfit you wanted! Who had a beautiful smile, when you could get him to laugh! You will be missed by those who knew you. Love You, from Big Sis Paulette

“ I have so many great memories of my father in law, but my favorite is when he made my wedding gown! I just showed him the picture & he made it perfectly. That was the wedding gift of all wedding gifts for me. He accepted me into the family generously & lovingly. He always referred to me as his other daughter & treated me as such. My thoughts of him will always include love, kindness & an avid family man.

“ Mr. G is what we called him. When he joined the Partnership he was a godsend to us. Such a funny and personable man. It greatly helped us when we found out he was good with the needle. We had our own personal tailor who always made sure we looked good. He had a talent with cooking also. A man of many talents who was loved ❤️ by us all. He really helped making my job easier. You are already missed Mr. G and you will forever be in all our hearts. We Love ❤️ You and May You Rest In Peace 🌹 \nB. Silver

“ My Pop-Pop was a man: he was never afraid to speak his mind and told you the truth even when it hurts. My Pop-Pop was a husband: the legendary cookouts he and my Mom-Mom would throw seemingly every weekend will never fade my memory. My Pop-Pop was a father: he never let his kids down and was always there when they needed him most. My Pop-Pop was a grandfather...he was my grandfather: the type of grandfather you need to mold a man. I will never forget your words of encouragement. I will never forget all the things you did for me. And most importantly, I will never forget what it means to be a Generette.

“ I remember my uncle “Jazzy” being a great cook. He fixed the best home cooked “soul food” meals and would definitely feed you. Oh and he could steam some crabs too!!\nRest easy Jazzy 🙏

“ I remember when I was approximately 3 years old and had the chicken pox. I had then everywhere; even the bottoms of my feet. My father carried me anywhere I wanted to go. He treated me like a fragile doll.
