

William Henry Heydt, Jr.

September 28, 1949 - August 22, 2021

William Henry Heydt, age 71, died August 22, 2021 at Baltimore Veterans Administration Medical Center.

Mr. Heydt is survived by wife Linda Lee Heydt, stepchildren Gerald E. Marcus Jr. and Kimberly Marcus, Tammy Pestridge and William Pestridge, Christine Moran, Robin Harmon and Mark Harmon and fourteen grandchildren. He was predeceased by his parents, William Heydt, Sr. and Dorothy Hollins.

William is a veteran of the Vietnam War, where he earned the Purple Heart, during his service as a combat medic. He was originally from Pottstown Pennsylvania and relocated to Maryland in 1997. He also enjoyed playing the Hammond B3 organ and keyboards with multiple bands including Sure Gold and David Wayne to name a few. As a hobby he enjoyed using his amateur radio to communicate with friends around the globe. He was also an enthusiastic Republican party supporter and patriot. He was particularly fond of his two dachshunds, Scooter and Max.
