

William David Irvine Jr.

December 4, 1972 - July 10, 2025

William “David” Irvine Jr., 52, of Glen Burnie, Maryland, passed away on July 10, 2025.

David, or as most knew him, “Dave”, was born on December 4, 1972, at Prince George’s Hospital in Cheverly, Maryland. He enjoyed fishing and off-roading in his Jeep. He truly appreciated nature and took great pride in helping others care for their yards. He was a friend to all animals and had a special place in his heart for pit bulls. David loved making others laugh and often shared humorous videos he found online.

He was preceded in death by his fiancé, Kiaran Buckley, and his beloved, four-legged best friend Maddox whom he referred to as his son.

He is survived by his mother Diane Wilcoxon, stepfather Art Wilcoxon, father William David Irvine Sr., and stepmother Cindy Irvine; his sister Donna Fowler, brother-in-law Eric Fowler, brother Douglas Irvine Sr., sister-in-law Jamie Irvine, brother Matthew Irvine, and sister Jessica Irvine. He also leaves behind many loving nieces and nephews, including Courtney, Cody, Casey, Hunter, Douglas Jr., and Emma.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you donate to a local pit bull or animal rescue of your choice in David’s honor.

“Dave i will always carry the special memories of you with me forever. If anyone was my bestfriend it was you! You really helped me through the toughest times and for that I am forever grateful. I will always remember how you told everyone I was your bestie. This is going to be a hard one for sure but I know you're at peace now nomore battling life. We was always there for eachother always. I will forever miss my bestfriend. There were times we both blocked one another on fb but not even a week later we missed one another. I need to be strong for you. Love you til we meet again.”
