

William Stalnaker

November 16, 1982 - April 2, 2017

William (Billy) Paul Stalnaker, 34, passed away on Sunday, April 2, 2017 after a three-year long battle with brain cancer. Billy was a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan who loved dogs, summertime trips to Ocean City, and working on cars with his brother. He was preceded in death by his loving parents, Mark Stalnaker and Betty Ward. Billy is survived by his grandma Mary (Mama) Ward; siblings Michael, Wayne, and Brooke Stalnaker as well as many nieces, nephews, and friends. Services will be private, however donations can be made in Billy's name to the American Cancer Society online at www.cancer.org.

Tribute Wall

BL

“ You know I still can't believe this happened, but when I sit back and look at all the good that he brought to people's lives it is amazing, I could share so many stories about big brother Bill, but they not appropriate. I just want to say that you were and amazing person, friend, and brother. You would do anything for anybody and that's how you will be remembered, Never greedy, always helping and always smiling. We love and miss u Bill. Love always, your brother Bobbo

Bobbo Letizio - April 09, 2017 at 12:26 PM

DO

“ I met Billy when he lovenly bought his grandmother (my aunt) to her sister's funeral. (my birth mother). It was the first time I had met Mary as well. After the funeral, my family went with Mary and Billy to lunch. We spent some time getting to know each other. Even though we only knew other for a short while, I felt a bond with him. He was a very special person. He was a loving grandson to Mary and took very good care of her. He also loved his brothers and sister very much. He was all about family and friends. He will ll be missed.

Diane Oakes - April 06, 2017 at 09:32 AM

MM

“ What can I say..... I spent almost every day with you for 4-5 years working our asses off, but through the day we made each other laugh and became really close. I still can't believe that you're gone. There was so much I had wished we did together. I'm glad you got your first boxing match in Atlantic City. We had a great time celebrating your birthday and going to the club. It was a night I'll never forget. And you're someone that is unforgettable. You had the biggest heart. My thoughts and condolences to the Stalnaker family I always felt part of. Because you all treated me like a brother first not a boss or a friend. I will cherish those days and one day we will meet again. Watch over your family and I love you. ❤️

Matthew Morgan - April 05, 2017 at 09:44 PM

AN

“ Well, we spent most of our time fighting, but you were a good man and did not deserve this. I promise to be there for Michael and the kids. I promise Dylan, CJ, Emily and Gabrielle know their Uncle Billy was a strong person who fought a good fight and that he was smart, funny and an all-around nice guy when he wanted to be insert a smirk here. I did really care for you Billy and I hope you know I prayed for you every night since this mess started. Rest In Peace and Blessed Be.

Ann - April 05, 2017 at 08:03 PM

BM

“ Billy, we go so far back. I don't even know where to begin. I know we haven't seen a lot of each other recently but I miss you very much. There are so many things I never got the chance to tell you and life events I was never able to share with you. I know we had our differences in the past but time heals all wounds and unfortunately I never worked up the courage to walk back into your life. I miss the days of hanging out in your basement, listening to music when we used to all act like a bunch of goofs. Some of the best times of my younger years took place in your basement. Billy's house was the chill spot. Sometimes I look back and wonder if you ever really knew how many people love you and care about you. You were always a pretty humble guy but you were very popular. You handled it well and I always admired you for that. Everyone wanted to be your friend. Until we meet again my friend, Rest in peace. Love, Brian (AKA Fletch)

Brian Merica - April 05, 2017 at 12:47 PM

NI

“ I'm lost for words but I can tell you that I will always miss you and you will always hold a special place in my heart. God sent you to me at a perfect time in my life and I will forever be grateful for that. I will forever cherish all the times and memories we made. I will always love you and everyday that passes brings me closer to the day I get to see your handsome face again. I know I have one of the best angels watching over me. Thanks for never giving up on me and always having my back.... I love you always William Paul Stalnaker!!

Nicole - April 05, 2017 at 11:23 AM

MC

“ My sincerest condolences to the family and friends who are suffering this tremendous loss, there are no words that can ease the pain or even take it away. There is never a justified reason as to why the good ones are always the first to go, it's a shameful fact of life that we can never understand. The best we can do is cherish and remember the great times and fond memories of our loved ones, it's what they would want and even in their absence.....we still want to give them what they want. Stay strong and know you're never alone.

Mark Canter - April 05, 2017 at 10:06 AM

NH

“ I don't think I need to tell you how much you mean to Haylee and me because I know you already know. Thank you for always being there for us, for loving us unconditionally, and for never giving up on us. You mean more to the two of us than I could ever put into words. I'm grateful to have known you and more so to have loved you. I'm not sure how to live this life without you Billy, but I know somehow you'll help me figure it out. I miss you, so so much. I love you...always and forever ♡

Nicole and Haylee - April 04, 2017 at 05:49 PM