

Xichang Chen

November 19, 1946 - February 15, 2022

Xichang Chen, 75, of Montgomery County, Maryland, passed away on February 15, 2022, after a courageous battle with cancer. Xichang lived a full and warm life. He will be fondly remembered and sorely missed.

On November 19, 1946, Xichang was born in Hangzhou, Zhejiang Province, China. He enjoyed playing Chinese Chess and Go Games in his youth. After graduating from Nanjing University with a major in Astrophysics, he became a statistician for the Bureau of Materials of Yuhang County in Hangzhou and worked there till he retired in 2007. He was passionate about helping others. In his spare time, he enjoyed tutoring math for kids and many of them entered their dream schools and had successful careers.

Xichang married Wennu Ma in 1978, and they had two daughters, Jue Chen and Yuan Chen. After his retirement, Xichang gradually spent more time in the U.S. to stay closer with his daughters' families. He supported and encouraged his daughters through difficulties in their lives and shared many joys with them. He has six grandchildren, who love him deeply.

No service will be held. Instead, Xichang will be buried in his hometown in China. May his next life be filled with happiness and peace.
