

Young Sook Kim

January 12, 1936 - July 17, 2024

It is with the greatest sadness that we announce the passing of Young Sook Kim (nee Lee) on July 17, 2024, at the age of 88. Young Sook was born on January 12, 1936 in Pyongyang, Korea to Suksin and In Sik Lee. After graduating from Kyung Gi Women's High School, she went on to study Political Science at Ewha University. During her time there, she met her husband Byong Hak Kim, a medical student at that time. The couple moved to the United States in 1965 and eventually settled in the Baltimore area. After Dr. Kim retired, they moved to Rockville, Maryland where they were active members of the Global Mission Church in Silver Spring and continued to help neighbors and their community. She was a generous and loving soul.

Young Sook was predeceased by her parents, her husband Byong Hak Kim, MD, and her beloved younger brother, Young Bin Lee, MD. She is survived by nephew Edward Lee, nieces Susan Lee and Ellen Lee, step-niece Janet Hung, step-nephew Jason Lee, sister-in-law, Eukyoung Lee, grandnephews Ethan Lee, Nicholas Parente, Joseph Parente, Samuel Parente, Roman Romano, Grayson Hung and Nathan Hung, grandnieces Elizabeth Lee and Ava Romano, nephews-in-law Joseph Parente, Lou Romano, Brian Hung, and niece-in-law Chittima Lee.

There will be a private service for the family at Norbeck Memorial Park in Olney MD on August 3, 2024 at 10:00 am.
