

Zeldia Dorethea Cromwell-Peters

August 16, 1958 - January 16, 2021

Zeldia D. Peters

Sunrise: August 16, 1958

Sunset: January 16, 2021

Z – Zesty E – Entertaining L – Loving D – Direct I – Inquisitive A – Animated
Zeldia has all these characteristics rolled up into one. Zeldia was zesty, entertaining, loving, direct, inquisitive, and animated. Zeldia was very much loved and, YES!, Zeldia was FUN!

Zeldia “Ree Ree” Dorethea Peters, 62, returned to glory on January, 16, 2021 peacefully. She loved her family and did not have any children of her own, but loved taking care of the children in the family.

Ree Ree was born on August 16, 1958 to the late Howard A. Cromwell and Helen Cromwell Gamble in Annapolis, MD. At a young age she was immersed in the Christian community and in her older years she enjoyed visiting churches in Maryland and Baltimore. She was educated in Anne Arundel County schools and Philadelphia, PA.

Zeldia enjoyed cooking, going to sports events. She loved life, and she loved to laugh. Zeldia was real and outspoken. She loved working And applying for various jobs. She was the wife of Bernard Day and Charles Peters (deceased). Zeldia was a loving, caring, daughter, wife, sister, friend, and was often supporting children in the family. She will be greatly missed.

Zeldia was preceded in death by her parents; her brothers, Edward A. Cromwell (Eddie C.) and George Alexander Mack (Alex); and husband, Charles Peters. She leaves to mourn her death her sisters, Rosetta Cromwell-Winder, Joye Renaye Cromwell, Betty J. Chambers, and Diane Lewis; her Aunt Catherine and Uncle Ferdinand; many nieces and nephews, and a host of loving cousins, friends.

In Memory of Our Aunt Ree Ree
We thought of you with love today
And you know you will be missed.
We will cherish the fond memories
And seal you with a kiss.
We Love you!
Thank you, Aunt Ree Ree.

We, the family of Zeldia "Ree Ree" Peters wish to say to each of you with deep appreciation for the comforting messages, cards, expressions of kindness: thank you so much!